Knowing the Score: Identifying Patients at High Risk of Liver Fibrosis from Non-Alcoholic Fatty Liver Disease (NAFLD)

Live Webinar:
Tuesday, December 9, 2014
12:00 pm ET / 9:00 am PT

To register for this live webinar, please visit: QuestDiagnostics.com/EventRegistration for this and all other webinars that are of interest to you. Please note that advance registration is required for participation.

Program Objectives:
At the conclusion of this program, participants will be able to:
• Define NAFLD and its place in the liver disease spectrum
• Understand the prevalence of NAFLD and why it is a growing concern in relation to type 2 diabetes mellitus
• State what the NAFLD Fibrosis Score is and what information it can provide
• Identify the benefits of knowing a patient’s NAFLD Fibrosis Score

For more information, contact your Quest Diagnostics representative or email EdEvents@QuestDiagnostics.com

Presenter:
Nathan M. Bass, MD, PhD
Professor Emeritus of Medicine
Former Medical Director,
UCSF Liver Transplantation Service
Division of Gastroenterology
UCSF Medical Center and School of Medicine
San Francisco, California

Nathan Bass, MD, PhD, FACP, FAASLD, is professor emeritus of medicine and former medical director of the Liver Transplant Program at University of California, San Francisco. His particular interests are in the areas of metabolic and fatty liver disease, hepatotoxicity, liver cancer, liver transplantation, portal hypertension, and complications of chronic liver disease.

Dr. Bass has served on the editorial boards of The Journal of Hepatology, Clinical Gastroenterology and Hepatology and Liver Transplantation. He has conducted NIH-funded research and has published over 160 original journal articles, editorials and chapters in textbooks on a variety of topics concerning liver function and disease.

Dr. Bass currently serves as a member of review committees for the National Institutes of Health and as a consultant to industry.